REPORT OF THE GENERAL COUNCIL

THE sums received during 1906, in addition to interest from investments (£42,106 8s. 3d.), were as follows: Donations, £6,685 1s. 3d.; Annual Subscriptions, £23,218 1s. 7d.; from the League of Mercy, £18,000. The total income of the Fund from general sources amounted to £110,955 16s. 1d. There was received £20,033 10s. 8d. on Capital Account.

The amount distributed was £111,000, including the £1,000 entrusted to the Fund for distribution among Convalescent Homes by the London Parochial Charities.

By the death, in October 1906, of Mrs. Lewis-Hill, one of our most generous supporters, the Fund becomes entitled to the sum of £250,000 left to it by the late Mr. Samuel Lewis, subject to Mrs. Lewis-Hill's life interest, and also to one half of the residue of his estate, the amount of which is not yet ascertained. Legacies from the late Mr. A. Beit of £20,000, the late Mr. John Nicholas of £10,000, and the late Lord Grimthorpe of £5,000, were announced before the close of the year, and the "Hannah Finnie Memorial" of £6,700 was received from the Executors of the late Mrs. Hannah Finnie. The Fund have also to acknowledge the munificent donations of £10,000 from an anonymous donor and of £10,000 from Mr. and Mrs. Bischoffsheim on the occasion of their Golden Wedding.

The amounts received in donations and subscriptions during the year show, as compared with 1905, a decrease of £13,932 8s. 8d., £10,000 of which is accounted for by the loss of the annual subscription of that amount generously given by the late Mrs. Lewis-Hill. On the other hand, the League of Mercy has contributed £18,000, being £3,000 more than in the previous year. During the eight years of its existence the League has furnished in all £79,000 to the Fund. To all the voluntary workers who have contributed towards this increasing success the Council wish to express their continued and grateful acknowledgments.

The Council desire to record their deep regret at the death of Mr. George Herring, whose benefactions to Hospitals through the Metropolitan Hospital Sunday Fund had at the time of his death reached nearly £90,000. Mr. Herring had shown his appreciation of King Edward's Hospital Fund by reserving to it the repayment of a large sum of money to be advanced to the Salvation Army ; and by his will he left to the Fund the proceeds of the sale of his house, 1 Hamilton Place, and most of its contents.

His Majesty the King, our Patron, has been pleased to continue the deep interest in the Fund which he has taken from its inception.

His Royal Highness the Prince of Wales returned from India on May 8 last, and resumed the personal supervision over the work of the Fund which as President he always exercises, and which had been performed during his absence by the Duke of Fife, to whom the Council desire to tender their best thanks.

In an Appendix to this Report will be found a report of the proceedings of the General Council meetings on December 17, 1906, and March 15, 1907.

Every eligible Hospital which applied for a grant was inspected and reported upon.

The Council are pleased to be able to report a marked diminution in the expenditure of various Hospitals which were previously showing a cost per bed above the average. They desire to acknowledge the ready manner in which their efforts in the direction of economy have been seconded by the Hospital Committees and Officials. The Council hope that the information which they continue to supply by means of the annual statistical reports will be of use to the Hospitals, and that none of them will have cause to regret the attention which the Fund has drawn to economy during the past few years. The Council are fully sensible of the fact that economical management is only one branch of Hospital work, and in the efforts they have made to assist in that direction they have not lost sight of the excellent work done by the Hospitals as a whole.

The revision of the Uniform System of Hospital Accounts was brought to a successful conclusion during 1906. Mr. J. G. Griffiths' Report mentioned last year was referred to a Committee of Hospital Secretaries and Representatives of the King's Fund, the Hospital Sunday Fund, and the Hospital Saturday Fund, presided over by Mr. Thomas Ryan. The three Funds, having considered the Report of this Committee, issued in December particulars of the revised system which had obtained Mr. Griffiths' approval, and it is now in force. It is hoped that the new form of accounts and statistics will enable comparisons of Hospital expenditure to be made in the future with as much accuracy as is possible in the circumstances.

His Royal Highness the President, in view of the increasing magnitude of the Fund's invested property, appointed a Finance Committee towards the end of last year. His Royal Highness, being also desirous of placing the Fund generally on a defined footing, expressed his desire, with the full approval of His Majesty the King, that the Fund should be incorporated by Act of Parliament. The necessary steps are being taken, with the support of the Council, to seek the consent of Parliament to a Bill for accomplishing that purpose.

The Council cannot conclude this Report without expressing their great obligation to Sir John Craggs, who served as Honorary Secretary of the Fund from its foundation until June 1906, and whose services, they are glad to know, will still be available on the Council and Committees of the Fund.

The Council again rely upon the kindly co-operation of the Press in obtaining for the work of the Fund yet wider publicity and support.

MARLBOROUGH HOUSE: March 15, 1907.

Appendix to Report of the General Council.

A MEETING of the General Council of King Edward's Hospital Fund for London, for the purpose of awarding grants to the Hospitals and Convalescent Homes for the present year, was held on December 17, 1906, at Marlborough House, H.R.H. the PRINCE OF WALES being in the chair.

Those present were the Lord-Lieutenant of London (the Duke of Fife), the Bishop of London, the Chief Rabbi (Dr. Adler), Viscount Iveagh, Lord Rothschild, Lord Farquhar, the President of the Hospital Sunday and Hospital Saturday Funds (the Lord Mayor), the Chairman of the County Council (Mr. Evan Spicer), the President of the Royal College of Surgeons (Mr. Henry Morris), Sir Savile Crossley, Sir Joseph Dimsdale, Mr. Stuart-Wortley, K.C., M.P., Sir Trevor Lawrence, Sir W. S. Church, Sir Julius Wernher, Sir Edgar Speyer, Sir Henry Burdett, Sir W. J. Collins, M.P., Sir John Craggs, Mr. Frederick M. Fry, Mr. William Latham, K.C., Mr. J. Danvers Power, Mr. Albert G. Sandeman, and Mr. Hugh C. Smith.

The minutes of the last meeting having been read and confirmed, letters of regret were reported from the following: The Lord-Lieutenant of Middlesex (the Duke of Bedford), the Duke of Norfolk, the Bishop of Southwark, Archbishop Bourne, the Rev. J. Guinness Rogers, D.D., the Rev. T. Bowman Stephenson, D.D., the Earl of Bessborough, Lord Strathcona, the President of the Royal College of Physicians (Sir R. Douglas Powell), Sir John Aird, and Mr. J. Pierpont Morgan, Jun.

LORD ROTHSCHILD reported that the amount received by the Fund to December 12, after payment of expenses, was £89,915, and in addition legacies to the amount of £35,000 had been declared, but not paid.

SIR HENRY BURDETT reported that the contribution from the League of Mercy would be £18,000, and said that the home counties had shown a great advance, and that the four counties under the presidency of Princess Victoria of Schleswig-Holstein had sent the largest contribution from any president of the League.

THE PRINCE OF WALES, in moving the adoption of the Reports and Awards, said:—In moving the adoption of the Reports of the Executive and Distribution Committees, I should like to take the opportunity of referring to certain matters of interest and importance connected with the Fund. Through the death of Mrs. Lewis-Hill we shall receive £250,000 left to us by Mr. Lewis, her late husband. I am sure that this meeting will share my feelings of sincere regret at our loss through the death of this charitable lady, who was one of our most liberal supporters. For it must be remembered that, although that sum was left to Mrs. Lewis-Hill for her life, she contributed to the Fund during her lifetime the income of it—£10,000 a year. We shall now receive the capital sum, together with half the residue of Mr. Lewis's estate. And there is another loss which we have to deplore, one whose name will never be forgotten as the true friend and the noble-minded benefactor of the sick and poor, Mr. George Herring. From him we also receive a considerable bequest in favour of the Fund. These sums, together with the large gifts received in recent years, and legacies of £20,000 from Mr. Beit, £10,000 from Mr. John Nicholas, £6,700 from Mrs. Finnie, and a large amount to be received from the estate of the late Mr. Heigham, as well as a gift of £10,000 from Mr. and Mrs. Bischoffsheim, and an equal sum from an anonymous donor, will bring our capital up to a large figure. You will all, I believe, agree that the time has come when a Committee should be appointed in order to assist Lord Rothschild and Mr. H. C. Smith, who have hitherto so ably attended to the investment of our capital. With their approval I have asked and have been lucky enough to obtain the valuable assistance of Lord Revelstoke, Sir Ernest Cassel, and Mr. Fleming, who have joined that Committee. After careful consideration, acting on legal advice, I have, with the sanction of the King, determined to apply to Parliament for a short Act to incorporate the Fund and to place its administration upon a strictly legal basis. I much regret that, owing to the shortness of time at our disposal before the Bill had to be lodged, which happens to be this very day, and to avoid losing a whole year, the Bill could not be submitted to you as I should naturally have desired. Copies are now before you, and I trust that it will meet with your entire support and approval. I am sorry that time did not admit of my consulting you, Gentlemen, as a whole, but I had the assistance and advice of those who are most closely connected with the matter, and I appointed a Committee to confer with those responsible for the drafting of the Bill. As soon as we obtain our necessary statutory powers, it may be advisable to consider the constitution of the Council and of the Committees, and take steps to ensure that their respective duties and responsibilities are more closely defined than they have hitherto been. Though our capital is large, we still look and hope for more support from annual subscribers of small sums. And I cannot but think that many who have been treated in the London Hospitals, or their friends, would, if the matter were suggested to them in the proper light, contribute something—no matter how small—as a thank-offering. I watch with the liveliest interest and pride the development of our great charity, but I should like to feel that it had the general support of the people of London, and this can only be proved by a constantly increasing number of annual subscribers. As Sir Henry Burdett has just told us, the League of Mercy has again given us splendid support—£18,000—an increase of £3,000 upon the sum given last year. It is with much pleasure that I make this announcement, as it is a testimony of the steady growth and expansion of the work of the League. I know that these results are not attained without very considerable efforts, and I heartily congratulate the members of the League on the gratifying results of their labours. I am glad that we have been able to increase the sum to be distributed this year to £111,000, which includes the £1,000 kindly entrusted to us by the London Parochial Charities for the Convalescent Homes. I hope that future distributions will never fall below this amount. We have continued the issue of our Statistical Report on Hospital Expenditure and Prices, which began in 1904 with the sixteen large general hospitals. The value of Mr. Danvers Power's work in this respect cannot be too highly appreciated. It now includes forty-eight hospitals. The sixteen hospitals reported on in 1904 showed a large reduction of expenditure last year, the value of which, taking into consideration the increase in the number of beds, is equal to a saving of about £20,000. When the other hospitals have had time to take advantage of the information which our reports provide, we hope this satisfactory saving will be largely increased. I desire to acknowledge the ready way in which many of the hospitals have seconded our efforts, by the appointment of Economy Committees. Let me take this opportunity of thanking Mr. J. G. Griffiths for his valuable Report, made at my request, on the Uniform System of Hospital Accounts, on which our statistics are based. My thanks are also due to the Committee of Hospital Secretaries, presided over by Mr. Ryan. They took Mr. Griffiths' recommendations into consideration, with the final result that the Hospital Sunday and Saturday Funds have agreed with us on a revised system. This will come into force on January 1 next, and, I trust, will be of benefit to all concerned in this important work of regulating hospital expenditure, and thus saving money, which is the same thing as gaining it, or even better. To all the Honorary Officials of the Fund and those who have served on the Council and various Committees I offer my warmest thanks. I cannot exaggerate what we owe to our Honorary Secretaries—they are unsparing in the valuable time and services which they, I fear often at personal inconvenience, cheerfully place at my disposal and that of the Fund. I am glad to think that their labours will be now, to some extent, lightened by the appointment of Mr. Maynard as Secretary of the Fund. But besides specifying the Honorary Officials of the Fund, I am anxious to assure every member of the Council and Committees how deeply I realise and appreciate the fact that it is by the gift of such of their valuable time and services as they are able to offer that this great and ever-increasing work of charity is administered, and I venture to say well and successfully administered, and to them all I offer my expressions of heartfelt gratitude.

THE LORD MAYOR (Sir W. P. Treloar), in seconding the adoption of the Report, said he was glad of the opportunity of saying, as Lord Mayor, that he was confident the Corporation of the City of London would, as heretofore, continue to do all they could to support the Fund.

The Resolution was then put and carried unanimously.

On the motion of the BISHOP OF LONDON, it was resolved that the cheques for the grants should be posted on December 20.

MR. STUART-WORTLEY moved that the Council approves of the Bill to incorporate the Fund. He explained the provisions of the Bill, which provides that the Fund shall be a body corporate with power to hold land, and generally have also the rights of a body corporate. The Bill gave full power to the President, who would be nominated by the Sovereign, and provided for the scope of the Fund's work, indemnifying all persons who have acted in good faith in carrying out the trusts of the Fund hitherto.

SIR JOSEPH DIMSDALE seconded.

LORD ROTHSCHILD said that the trustees had had legal advice to the effect that, unless otherwise provided by donors, gifts of money to the Fund must be invested in trust funds. A large sum of £100,000 recently given to the Fund in bonds, which had been paid off, had accordingly been so invested, and that had given rise to some dissatisfaction. A Finance Committee could not deal with these matters until given the power asked for in the Bill.

SIR HENRY BURDETT thought that to include dispensaries and medical missions might extend the operations of the Fund too much.

MR. DANVERS POWER explained that the fullest permissive powers had been taken, but that the President would define the limits of action from time to time.

SIR WILLIAM COLLINS said he welcomed the proposed incorporation of the Fund, because, as His Royal Highness had foreshadowed, it would be followed by regularising and defining the duties of the various Committees of the Fund. He had not been able to read the Bill through since he entered the room, but it occurred to him that Clauses 5 and 8 might give rise to discussion in the House of Commons and might necessitate some give-and-take. As a Member of the Lower House, while voting for the approval of the Bill at that meeting, he desired to reserve some liberty of action when the matter got into Committee in the Commons.

The motion was carried unanimously.

MR. EVAN SPICER (Chairman of the County Council), in moving a vote of thanks to His Royal Highness for presiding, congratulated him upon the splendid results which had been attained.

SIR WILLIAM COLLINS seconded, and took the opportunity, as Honorary Secretary of the League of Mercy, of thanking the Prince of Wales for what he had said about the League, which would be an encouragement to all its members.

The vote being carried by acclamation, HIS ROYAL HIGHNESS said: My Lords and Gentlemen,—I thank the Chairman of the County Council and Sir William Collins for the kind vote of thanks which they proposed and seconded. I have always felt that the King conferred a great privilege upon me when he made me President of this Fund, which he had himself initiated. The King desires me to offer you his congratulations on the gratifying result of the past year, and to tell you how much he appreciates the energy and self-sacrifice which has been displayed by those in whose hands has been placed the administration of the Fund. I can only say that it has given me great pleasure to meet you here again in my house, especially as last year, owing to my absence in India, I was unable to do so.

The proceedings then terminated.

The Annual Meeting of the General Council of King Edward's Hospital Fund for London, to receive the Accounts and the Report of the General Council for the year 1906, was held at Marlborough House on March 15, 1907, H.R.H. the PRINCE OF WALES, President of the Fund, in the chair. There were present the Bishop of Southwark, the Rev. T. Bowman Stephenson, D.D., the Earl of Bessborough, Viscount Iveagh, Lord Rothschild, the President of the Hospital Sunday and Hospital Saturday Funds (the Lord Mayor), the Chairman of the County Council (Mr. H. Percy Harris), the Governor of the Bank of England (Mr. A. F. Wallace), the President of the Royal College of Physicians (Sir R. Douglas Powell), the President of the Royal College of Surgeons (Mr. Henry Morris), Sir Joseph Dimsdale, Mr. Thomas Burt, M.P., Sir Trevor Lawrence, Sir John Aird, Sir W. S. Church, Sir Edgar Speyer, Sir Henry Burdett, Sir W. J. Collins, M.P., Sir John Craggs, Mr. Frederick M. Fry, Mr. William Latham, K.C., Mr. J. Danvers Power, and Mr. Hugh C. Smith.

The Minutes of the previous meeting were read and confirmed. Letters of regret were reported from the following:—The Lord-Lieutenant of London (the Duke of Fife), the Lord-Lieutenant of Middlesex (the Duke of Bedford), the Duke of Norfolk, the Bishop of London, Archbishop Bourne, the Chief Rabbi (the Rev. Dr. Adler), Lord Strathcona and Mount Royal, Lord Farquhar, Sir Savile Crossley, Mr. C. Stuart-Wortley, K.C., M.P., Sir Julius Wernher, and Mr. J. Pierpont Morgan, Jun.

LORD ROTHSCHILD, the Hon. Treasurer, presented the Accounts.

THE PRINCE OF WALES moved the adoption of the Accounts, which was seconded by SIR HENRY BURDETT and supported by SIR JOSEPH DIMSDALE, and carried unanimously.

MR. DANVERS POWER read the draft Report of the Council for the year 1906.

THE PRINCE OF WALES, in moving the adoption of the Report, said:—As at our last meeting in December I went fully into the various questions affecting the Fund, I do not propose to do more to-day than to formally move the adoption of the Report. I consider the meeting of the Council to pass the distribution of our funds to be the most important one of the year, and I therefore intend for the future to keep any remarks I may have to make for that occasion. But I should like to take this opportunity of thanking Sir John Craggs, who was one of our Hon. Secretaries from the foundation of the Fund until last June, for his invaluable services, which have been of the greatest assistance to the Fund, and have involved the expenditure of an enormous amount of time and trouble on his part. We cannot be too grateful to him for what he has done for us, and we are all, I am sure, very glad to know that we shall still have the benefit of his advice as a member of the Council and Committees on which he serves. I now move the adoption of the Report.

The Resolution was seconded by SIR WILLIAM COLLINS, supported by MR. HENRY MORRIS (President of the Royal College of Surgeons) and SIR JOHN CRAGGS, and carried unanimously.

The progress of the Bill for incorporating the Fund was reported.

THE LORD MAYOR (Sir W. P. Treloar) moved, and the CHAIRMAN OF THE COUNTY COUNCIL (Mr. H. Percy Harris) seconded, a vote of thanks to the Prince of Wales for presiding, which HIS ROYAL HIGHNESS briefly acknowledged.

The proceedings then terminated.

Report of the Hospitals Distribution Committee.

(1) The Committee have the pleasure to report that, with the approval of His Royal Highness the President, the sum of £110,000 was placed in their hands for distribution this year amongst the London Hospitals, as against £100,000 in 1905.

(2) The number of Hospitals applying for grants is 105, as against 106 last year, five having fallen out and four new applications having been received.

(3) The Committee are pleased to learn that the City Orthopædic Hospital has now agreed to amalgamate with the Royal National Orthopædic Hospital, and that the arrangements are in course of being carried out. The sum of £250, voted conditionally last year to the City Orthopædic Hospital, remains in hand, and to this the Committee have added £250, so that the assets of the Hospital to be pooled on amalgamation will be increased by £500.

(4) In regard to the Throat, Nose, and Ear Hospitals, the Committee are informed that the negotiations for amalgamation are proceeding. Towards this object the Distribution Committee, on the advice of the Committee appointed to deal with the matter, have set on one side £1,000 instead of making separate grants to each Hospital. This grant is in addition to the considerable sums already promised by the Fund.

(5) The sum of £4,500 voted towards the removal of King's College Hospital to South London increases the total amount contributed by the Fund to this object to £16,000.

(6) The Committee have this year continued the policy begun in 1905 of making exceptional grants in a few special instances. These amounts will be regarded in the nature of advances, and will, of course, be taken into consideration in the future. The exceptional grants are £5,000 to the Hampstead General Hospital, to enable them to take advantage of a conditional offer of £20,000; and £4,500 to the Mount Vernon Hospital for Consumption, to extinguish their debt on the buildings which are now completed.

(7) The Committee recommend that grants made towards specified objects, such as building or other improvements, should in future be retained by the Fund until required. Several cases have been brought to the notice of the Committee where large sums which have been granted in this way still remain unexpended. It seems desirable that some limit should be placed on the length of time during which such grants should be allowed to remain unexpended, and that they should be reconsidered every two years while they remain unapplied.

(8) It will be seen that in accordance with the Committee's recommendation last year the distinction between annual grants and donations has been abolished.

(9) The attention of the Committee has been called to the extensive arrangements for teaching nursing at Hospitals; and while not wishing in any way to disparage work so obviously advantageous to the public, it may become necessary to consider to what extent expenditure is incurred for nursing beyond the requirements of the nursing service of each Hospital.

(10) The subject of overbuilding, especially by institutions which are already unable to maintain their existing beds, has been considered by the Committee. They observe that the Council in 1903 sanctioned the following Resolution of the Executive Committee :—

“That in future any new Hospital or those reconstructing or extending to a considerable extent within the area dealt with by the Fund be requested before taking definite action to submit their proposals to the Fund.”

The Committee recommend that the full purport and intention of this Resolution should be brought each year to the notice of the Hospitals.

(11) The Reports of the Visitors have, as usual, received the careful consideration of the Committee and have been of the utmost value.

(12) The Committee are pleased to observe considerable reduction in the cost per bed in a number of Hospitals where the expenditure was formerly considered too high. Though much still remains to be done, the Committee commend to public attention the general efforts being now made by the Hospitals in the direction of economy.

(13) In addition to their published remarks the Committee have followed and extended their usual practice in recommending that various suggestions, including many from the Visitors' Reports, should be made privately to some of the Hospitals.

The details of the awards to the various Hospitals are appended.

For the Committee,

W. S. CHURCH,

Chairman.

REPORT OF THE CONVALESCENT HOMES COMMITTEE.

Owing to the continued liberality of the Trustees of the London Parochial Charities the Committee have again £1,000 to distribute.

The Committee have continued their practice of giving the preference to Institutions directly connected with London Hospitals.

The Committee have called the attention of the Executive Committee to the fact that the country branches of London Consumption Hospitals are not in strictness Convalescent Homes. At the same time, considering the nature of the malady, it is desirable that the treatment should be conducted outside the area hitherto visited by the visitors to Hospitals.

* This loss is due to the fact that the two equal parts of a donation of Bonds to the nominal value of £200,000 were entered at their relative values on the date of receipt, viz. £103,000 and £97,000 respectively. The Bonds entered at £103,000 have been paid off at par.
